7. Honsador shall be entitled, without notice, in its sole unfettered discretion, at any time and from time to time, and whether or not Honsador has already agreed to sell merchandise to the Customer on any terms, to terminate, suspend or alter the availability of credit to the Customer and the terms relating thereto, in whole or in part.

Without restricting the generality of the foregoing:

- (a) Honsador shall be entitled, in such case, to require cash payment, different interest and payment terms, and additional guarantees or securities for payment as shall be acceptable to Honsador, either prior to shipment or delivery, all without liability to the Customer for any damages whatsoever; and
- (b) The Customer acknowledges that credit terms shall not be implied from any previous course of dealing between Honsador and the Customer or from any usage of trade.

8. In the event the Credit Agreement is terminated, or if the account has been closed or suspended, or if the Customer fails to comply with the terms and conditions set forth herein, all sums owned by the Customer shall become due to Honsador without delay and shall be subject to immediate payment by the Customer.

9. This Credit Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the U.S. State in which the products are delivered, or from the place the services are rendered, without regard to conflict of law rules. The parties expressly agree that any dispute or proceeding whatsoever relating to this Credit Agreement or payment of amounts owed by the Customer shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the state in which the products are delivered, or from the place the services are rendered.

10. In consideration of Honsador extending credit to the customer, the undersigned principal(s) agrees to be co-covenantor with the Customer and to be jointly and severally liable as principal debtor(s) and not as guarantor or surety for due payment of all amounts on money payable by the Customer to Honsador.

11. The Customer (and the co-covenantor) consents and agrees that this Credit Agreement be conducted by electronic means using information technology and that its storage and use, as well as the supply, the exchange and the reception of information, communications or documents resulting from or related thereto are carried out through documents or data stored electronically using information technology. Moreover, the Customer (and the co-covenantor) acknowledges and accepts that affixing their signature on this Credit Agreement through a process using information technology is as valid as handwritten signatures.

12. The execution of this credit application shall constitute an undertaking by the applicant to immediately advise Honsador, of any change respecting any of the information called for in this application. The failure of applicant to provide updated information, including, but not limited to any change in the contractor licensing status of applicant, shall constitute a breach of this agreement.

13. The Customer consents to Honsador's use of a non-business consumer credit report on the undersigned in order to further evaluate the credit worthiness of the undersigned as principal(s), proprietor(s), and/or guarantor(s) in connection with the extension of business credit as contemplated by this credit application. The Customer hereby authorizes Honsador to utilize a consumer credit report on the undersigned from time to time in connection with the extension or continuation of the business credit represented by this application. The Customer knowingly consents to the use of such credit reports consistent with the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act as contained in 15 U.S.C. @ 1681 ET SEQ.
